¶ An Act for a publike Thanksgiuing to Almighty God, euery yeere on the fift day of Nouember.

IOrasmuch as Almighty
God hath in all ages shewed his power and mercy, in the miraculous
and gracious deliuerance of his Church, and in the protection of religious Kings & States.
And that no Nation of the earth hath beene blessed with greater benefits then this Kingdome now enioyeth, hauing
the true and free profession of the Gospel
vnder our most Soueraigne Lord King Iames, the most Great, Learned, and Religious King that euer reigned therein, enriched with a most hopefull and plentifull Progenie, proceeding out of his Royall loynes, promising continuance of this happinesse and profession to all posterity:
the which many malignant and deuilish Papists, Jesuites, and Seminary Priests much envying and fearing, conspired most horribly, when the Kings most Excellent Maiestie, the Queene, the Prince, and all the Lords Spirituall and Temporal, and Commons should haue beene assembled in the vpper house of Parliament vpon the fift day of November, in the yeere of our Lord 1605, suddenly to haue blowne by the said whole house with Gunpowder; An inuention so inhumane, barbarous, and cruell, as the like was neuer before heard of, and was (as some of the principall Conspirators thereof confesse) purposely deuised and concluded to be done in the said house, that where sundry, necessary and religious Lawes for preservation of the Church and State were made, which they falsely and slanderously terme cruell Lawes, enacted against them and their Religion, both place and persons should be all destroyed and blowne by at once, which would haue turned to the vtter ruine of this whole Kingdome. Had it not pleased Almighty God, by inspiring the Kings most excellent Maiesty with a diuine spirit, to interpret some darke phrases of a letter shewed to his Maiesty, aboue and beyond all ordinary construction, thereby miraculously discovering this hidden treason treason not many houres before the appointed time for the execution thereof: Therfore the Kings most Excellent Maiestie, the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and all his Maiesties faithfull and louing Subiects, do most iustly acknowledge this great and infinite Blessing to haue proceeded merely from God his great mercy, and to his most holy Name doe ascribe all honour, glozy and praise. And to the end this vnfaigned thankfulness may neuer be forgotten, but be had in a perpetual remembrance, that all ages to come may yeeld praises to his diuine Maiestie for the same, and haue in memory This ioyfull day of deliuerance.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings most Excellent Maiesty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, that all and singular Ministers in euery Cathedrall and parish Church, or other vsuall place for Common Prayer within this Realm of England, and the Dominions of the same, shall alwayes vpon the fift day of Nouember, say Morning Prayer, and give vnto Almighty God thanks for This most happy deliuerance, And that all and euery person & persons inhabiting within this Realme of England, and the Dominions of the same, shall alwayes vpon that Day diligently and faithfully resort to the Parish Church or Chappel accustomed, or to some vsuall Church or Chappel where the said morning Prayer, Preaching, or other seruice of God shall bee vsed, and then and there to abide orderly and soberly during the time of the said Prayers, Preaching, or other seruice of God there to be vsed and ministred.

And because all and euery person may be put in minde of this duety, and be the better prepared to the said holy Seruice, Bee it enacted by authoritie aforesaid, That euery Minister shall give warning to his Parishioners publikely in the Church at morning Prayer, the Sunday before euery such fift Day of Nouember, for the due obseruation of the said Day. And that after morning Prayer, or Preaching vpon the said fift Day of Nouember they read distinctly and plainly this present Act.

God saue the King.

PRAYERS and THANKSGIVING
to be vsed by all His Maiesties

louing Subiects,

For the happy deliuerance of His Maiestie, the Queene, Prince, and States of Parliament, from the most traiterous and bloody intended Massacre by Gun-powder, the fift of Nouember, 1605.

I Exhort you therefore, that first of all, prayers, sup-plications, intercessions, and giuing of thanks be made for all men: for Kings, and for all that are in authority, that we may leade a quiet and peaceable life, in all godlinesse and honesty. For that is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.

1. Tim. 2

First the Minister shall with a loud voyce pronounce one of these three sentences following.

Turne thy face away from our sinnes, O
Lord, and blot out all our offences.

Psal. 51.

Correct vs, O Lord, and yet in thy iudgement, not in thy fury, lest wee should be consumed and brought to nothing.

Ier. 10.

I will

Luk. 15.

I will goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and against thee: I am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

Dearely beloued brethren, the Scripture moneth vs in sundry places, to acknowledge and confesse our manifold sins and wickednes, and that we should not dissemble nor cloake them before the face of Almighty God our heauenly Father, but confesse them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtaine forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodnesse and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our finnes before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to doe when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that wee haue receiued at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to heare his most holy word, and to aske those things which bee requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as bee heere present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble booke, vnto the Throne of the heauenly grace, saying after me.

¶ A generall Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, kneeling.

Almighty and most mercifull Father, Wee haue erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe. Wee haue followed too much the devices and desires of our owne hearts, Wee haue offended against for his Maleities deliuerance, &c.

against thy holy lawes, Wee haue left vndone those things which wee ought to haue done, And wee haue done those things which wee ought not to haue done, And there is no health in vs: But thou, O Lord, haue mercy vpon vs miserable offenders, Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faults, Restore thou them that be penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankinde in Christ Iesu our Lord. And grant, O most mercifull father, for his sake, that we may hereafter liue a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The absolution or remission of sinnes, to be pronounced by the Priest alone, and standing.

A Almighty God, the father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that hee may turne from his wickednesse and liue, and hath giuen power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes: hee pardoneth and absolueeth all them that truly repent, and vnfeignedly beleue his holy Gospel. Wherefore wee beseech him to grant vs true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we doe at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may bee pure and holy, so that at the last wee may come to his eternall ioy through Iesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answer, Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lords Prayer, with a loud voyce.

Our father which art in heauen, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done

Prayers and Thankelgiuing

done in earth as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our dayly bread. And forgiue vs our trespasses, as wee forgiue them that trespass against vs. And leade vs not into temptation: But deliuer vs from euill: for thine is the kingdome, the power and the glory, for euer and euer. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say.

○ Lord open thou our lips.

Answer.

And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Minister.

○ God make speed to saue vs.

Answer.

○ Lord make haste to helpe vs.

Minister.

Glozy be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Praise yee the Lord.

¶ Then shall be said or sung this Psalm following.

○ Come, let vs sing vnto the Lord: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation.

Let vs come before his presence with thankelgiuing: and shew our selues glad in him with Psalmes.

For the Lord is a great God: and a great King aboue all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hills is his also.

The Sea is his, and he made it: and his hands prepared the dry land.

○ Come, let vs worship, and fall downe: and kneele before the Lord our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God: and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hands.

To

for his Maiesties deliuerance, &c.

To day if yee will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness.

When your fathers tempted mee: proued mee, and saw my workes.

Forty peeres long was I griued with this generation, and said: It is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not knowne my wayes.

Unto whom I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Glozy be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ The other Psalmes to be read, are the 35. 68. 69.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. 35.

Leade thou my cause, O Lord, with them that strue with mee, and fight thou against them that fight against me.

Lay hand vpon the shield and buckler, and stand vp to helpe mee.

Bring forth the speare, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say vnto my soule, I am thy saluation.

Let them be confounded, and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them bee turned backe and brought to confusion, that imagine mischief for mee.

Let them bee as the dust before the winde: and the Angel of the Lord scattering them.

Let their way be darke and slippery: and let the Angel of the Lord persecute them.

Prayers and Thankelgiuing

For they haue priuily laid their net to destroy me without a cause: yea, even without a cause haue they made a pit for my soule.

Let a sudden destruction come vpon him vnawares, and his net that hee hath layd priuily, catch himselfe: that hee may fall into his owne mischiese.

And my soule, be ioyfull in the Lord: it shall reioyce in his saluation.

All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poore and him that is in misery, from him that spoileth him.

False witnesse did rise vp: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

They rewarded mee euill for good: to the great discomfort of my soule.

Nevertheless, when they were sicke, I put on sackcloth, and humbled my soule with fasting: and my prayer shall turne into mine owne bosome.

I behaued my selfe as though it had beene my friend, or my brother: I went heauily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

But in mine aduersitie they reioyced, and gathered them together: yea, the very abiects came together against mee vnawares, making mooves at me, and ceased not.

With the flatterers were busie mockers: which gnashed vpon me with their teeth.

Lord, how long wilt thou looke vpon this: O deliuer my soule from the calamities, which they bring on me, and my darling from the Lions.

So will I giue thee thanks in the great Congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

O let

for his Maiesties deliuerance, &c.

O let not them that are mine enemies, triumph ouer mee vngodly: neither let them winke with their eyes that hate me without a cause.

And why? their communing is not for peace: but they imagine deceitfull words against them that are quiet in the land.

They gaped on mee with their mouthes, and said: fie on thee, fie on thee, wee saw it with our eyes.

This thou hast seene, O Lord: hold not thy tongue then, goe not farre from me, O Lord.

Awake and stand vp to iudge my quarrell: avenge thou my cause, my God, and my Lord.

Judge me, O Lord my God, according to thy righteousnesse: and let them not triumph ouer me.

Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so would we haue it: neither let them say, Wee haue deuoured him.

Let them bee put to confusion and shame together, that reioyce at my trouble: let them bee clothed with rebuke and dishonour, that boast themselves against me.

Let them bee glad and reioyce, that fauour my righteous dealing: yea, let them say alway, Blessed be the Lord, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his seruant.

And as for my tongue, it shall be talking of thy righteousnesse: and of thy praise all the day long.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. 68.

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him, flee before him.

Like as the smoke vanissheth, so shalt thou drine them away: and like as waxe melteth at the fire, so let the vngodly perish at the presence of God.

Prayers and Thanksgiuing

But let the righteous be glad and reioyce before God: let them also be merry and ioyfull.

O sing vnto God, and sing praises vnto his Name: magnifie him that rideth vpon the heauens as it were vpon an horse, praise him in his Name, yea, and reioyce before him.

Hee is a father of the fatherlesse, and defendeth the cause of the widowes: euen God in his holy habitation.

Hee is the God that maketh men to bee of one minde in an house, and bringeth the prisoners out of captiuitie: but letteth the runnagates continue in scarcenesse.

O God, when thou wentest forth before the people: when thou wentest thorow the wilderness.

The earth shook, and the heauens dropped at the presence of God, euen as Sinai also was moued at the presence of God, which is the God of Israel.

Thou, O God, sentest a gracious raine vpon thine inheritance: and refreshedst it when it was weary.

Thy Congregation shall dwel therein: for thou, O God, hast of thy goodnes prepared for the poore.

Why hop ye so ye high hills? this is Gods hill, in the which it pleaseth him to dwell: yea, the Lord will abide in it for euer.

The charets of God are twenty thousand, euen thousands of Angels: and the Lord is among them, as in the holy place of Sinai.

Thou art gone by on high, thou hast led captiuitie captiue, and receiued gifts for men: yea, euen for thine enemies, that the Lord God might dwell among them.

Praised be the Lord daily: euen the God which helpeth vs, and powreth his benefits vpon vs.

He is our God, euen the God of whom commeth saluation: God is the Lord by whom we escape death.

God shall wound the head of his enemies: and the haire scalpe of such a one as goeth on still in his wickednesse.

The Lord hath said, I will bring my people againe, as I did from Babel: mine owne will I bring againe, as I did sometime from the deepe of the Sea.

That thy foot may bee dipped in the blood of thine enemies: and that the tongue of thy dogges may be red through the same.

It is well seene, O God, how thou goest: how thou my God and King goest in the Sanctuary.

The singers goe before, the minstrels follow after: in the midst are the damels playing with the timbrels.

O God, wonderfull art thou in thy holy places: euen the God of Israel, hee will giue strength and power vnto his people, blessed be God.

Saluum me fac. Psal. 69.

Save mee, O God: for the waters are come in, euen vnto my soule.

I sticke fast in the deepe mire where no ground is: I am come into deepe waters, so that the floods runne ouer me.

I am weary of crying, my throat is dry: my sight faileth me for waiting so long vpon my God.

They that hate mee without a cause, are moe then then the haire of my head: they that are mine enemies, and would destroy me guiltlesse, are mighty.

I payed them the things that I neuer tooke: God, thou knowest my simplenesse, and my faults are not hid from thee.

Let not them that trust in thee, O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed for my cause: let not those that seeke thee, bee confounded through mee, O Lord God of Israel.

And why? for thy sake haue I suffered reproofe: shame hath couered my face.

I am become a stranger vnto my brethren: euen an alien vnto my mothers children.

For the zeale of thy house hath euen eaten mee: and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee, are fallen vpon me.

I wept and chastened my selfe with fasting: and that was turned to my reproofe.

I put on sackcloth also: and they teased vpon me.

They that sit in the gate speake against me: and the drunkards make songs vpon me.

But Lord, I make my prayer vnto thee: in an acceptable time.

Heare me, O God, in the multitude of thy mercy: euen in the trueth of thy saluation.

Take me out of the myze, that I sinke not: oh let me be deliuered from them that hate mee, and out of the deepe waters.

Let not the water-flood drowne mee, neither let the deepe swallow mee vp: and let not the pit shut her mouth vpon me.

Heare me, O Lord, for thy louing kindnesse is comfortable: turne thee vnto me, according to the multitude of thy mercies.

And

Prayers and Thankesgiuing

And hide not thy face from thy seruant, for I am in trouble: oh haste thee, and heare me.

Dra w nigh vnto my soule, and saue it: oh deliuer me, because of mine enemies.

Thou hast knowne my reproofe, my shame, and my dishonour: mine aduersaries are all in thy sight.

Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am full of heauinesse: I looked for some to haue pitie on me, but there was no man, neither found I any to comfort me.

They gaue mee gall to eate: and when I was thirsty, they gaue me vineger to drinke.

Poure out thine indignation vpon them: and let thy wrathfull displeasure take hold of them.

Let their habitation bee voide: and no man to dwell in their tents.

For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten: and they talke how they may vex them whom thou hast wounded.

Let them fall from one wickednesse to another: and not come into thy righteousnesse.

Let them be wiped out of the booke of the liuing: and not be written among the righteous.

As for me, when I am poore and in heauinesse: thy helpe, O God, shall lift me vp.

I will praise the Name of God with a song: and magnifie it with thankesgiuing.

This

for his Maielties deliuerance, &c.

This also shall please the Lord: better then a bullocke, that hath hornes and hoofes.

The humble shall consider this, and bee glad: seeke ye after God, and your soule shall liue.

For the Lord heareth the pooze: and despiseth not his prisoners.

Let heauen and earth praise him: the Sea, and all that moueth therein.

For God will saue Sion, and build the Cities of Iuda: that men may dwell there, and haue it in possession.

The posterity also of his seruants shall inherit it: and they that loue his Name shall dwell therein.

¶ The first Lesson, is the xxij. Chapter of the second booke of Samucl.

And Dauid spake the words of this song vnto the Lord, what time the Lord had deliuered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. And hee said, The Lord is my Rocke, and my castle, and my deliuerer. God is my strength, in him will I trust: hee is my shield, and the horne of my saluation: my high tower, and my refuge, my Saviour, thou hast saued me from wrong. I will call vpon the Lord which is praise worthy: and so shall I bee saued from mine enemies. For the pangs of death closed me about, the floods of Belial put me in feare. The sorowes of hell compassed mee about: snares of death ouertooke mee. In my tribulation did I call vpon the Lord, and cryed to my God: and hee did heare my voyce out of his Temple, and my cry did enter into his eares. The earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of heauen moued, and shooke when he was angry. Smoake went out of his nostrils, and consuming fire out of his mouth: coales were kindled thereat. And he bowed heauen, and came downe, and there was darkenesse vnder his feet. And hee rode vpon Cherub, and did flie: hee came flying vpon the wings of the winde. Hee made darkenesse a tabernacle round about him: with waters gathered together in thicke cloudes. Through the brightnesse of his presence, were the coales of fire kindled. The Lord thundred from heauen: and hee that is most high gaue his voyce. He shot arrowes and scattered them; to wit, lightning, and ouerthrew them. The channells of the Sea appeared, and the foundations of the world were seene: by the reason of the rebuking of the Lord, and through the blasting of the breath of his nostrils. Hee sent from aboue, and tooke me: he drew me out of many waters. He deliuered mee from my mighty enemy, and from them that hated mee; for they were too strong for mee. When they had preuented mee in the day of my calamity; the Lord stayed mee by. For hee brought mee out into a large place: hee deliuered mee, because he had fauour vnto me. The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the purenesse of my hands hee recompensed me. For I haue kept the wayes of the Lord; and did not wickedly against my God. For all his Lawes were in my sight; and from his statutes I did not depart depart. In his sight also haue I beene vpight :

and haue kept me from mine owne iniquity. And the Lord did to me againe according to my righte-ousnesse : euen after my purenesse in his eye-sight.
With the godly thou shalt be godly : and with the man that is vpight , thou shalt be vpight. With the pure thou shalt be pure : and with the froward thou shalt shew thy selfe froward. And the poore people thou wilt saue : but thine eyes are vpon the proud to bring them downe. For thou art my light , O Lord : and the Lord shall lighten my darkenesse. For by thee I shall breake through an hoste of men : and by my God will I spring ouer a wall. God is vncorrupt in his way , the word of the Lord is tried in the fire : hee is a shield to all that trust in him. For who is a God saue the Lord ? and who is mighty saue our God ? God strengtheneth me in battell : and maketh the way cleare before mee. He maketh my feet like hindes feet : and setteth mee vpon the high places. Hee teacheth my hands to fight : so that euen a bowe of steele is broken with mine armes. Thou hast giuen mee the shield of thy saluation : and with thy louing meekenesse thou doest multiply mee.
Thou hast enlarged my steps vnder mee : and my legges shall not faile mee. I haue followed vpon mine enemies , and destroyed them : and turned not againe vntill I had consumed them. I haue wasted them , and wounded them , that they shall not be able to arise : yea , they shall fall vnder my feet. Thou hast girded mee about with might to battell , and them that rose against mee , hast thou subdued vnder mee. And thou hast giuen mee the neckes of mine enemies : that I might destroy them that hate me. They looked about, but there was none to saue them: euen vnto the Lord, but hee heard them not. Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth: I did stamp them as the clay of the street, and did spread them abroad. Thou also hast deliuered mee from the dissention of people, thou hast kept me to be an head ouer nations: the people which I knew not doe serue me. Strange children dissemble with mee: at the hearing of the eare they obey mee. Strange children will shrink away: and they shall be smitten with feare in their priue chamber. The Lord liueth, and blessed bee my strength: magnified bee God, euen the force of my saluation. It is God that giueth me power to reuenge me: and bringeth downe the people vnder me. He deliuereth me from mine enemies, thou also hast lift mee vp on high from them that rose against mee: thou hast deliuered me from the wicked man. And therefore I will praise thee, O Lord, among the nations: and will sing vnto thy Name. He is the tower of saluation for his King, and dealeth mercifully with his anointed: with David, and with his seed for euermore.

¶ Then reade or sing.

Wee praise thee, O God: wee know ledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worshipping thee: the Father everlasting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud: the heauens and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin: continually doe cry.

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabbath.

Heauen and earth are full of the Maiestie : of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles : praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets : praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs : praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world : doeth knowledge thee.

The Father : of an infinite Maiestie.

Thine honourable, true : and onely Sonne.

Also the holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of glory : O Christ.

Thou art the euermourning Sonne : of the Father.

When thou tookest vpon thee to deliuer man : thou didst not abhorre the Virgins wombe.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpenesse of death : thou didst open the Kingdome of heauen to all beleeuers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

Wee beleue that thou shalt come : to bee our Judge.

We therefore pray thee help thy seruants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to bee numbred with thy Saints : in glory euermourning.

O Lord saue thy people : and blesse thine inheritance.

Gouerne them : and lift them vp for euer.

Day by day : we magnifie thee.

And wee worship thy Name : euer world without end.

Amen.

Prayers and Thanksgiuing

Wouchsafe (O Lord :) to keepe vs this day without sinne.

O Lord haue mercy vpon vs : haue mercy vpon vs.

O Lord let thy mercy lighten vpon vs : as our trust is in thee.

O Lord in thee haue I trusted : let me neuer be confounded.

¶ The second Lesson is the xxij. Chapter of the Actes of the Apostles.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the Councill, said, Men and brethren, I haue liued in all good conscience before God vntill this day. And the high Priest Ananias commanded them that stood by to smite him on the mouth. Then said Paul vnto him, God shall smite thee thou painted wall : for sittest thou and iudgest me after the Law, and commandest mee to be smitten contrary to the Law ? And they that stood by, said, Reuilest thou Gods high Priest ? Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high Priest : for it is written, Thou shalt not curse the ruler of thy people. But when Paul perceiued that the one part were Sadduces, and the other Pharisees, hee cryed out in the Councill, Men and brethren I am a Pharisee, the sonne of a Pharisee : of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am iudged. And when he had so said, there arose a debate betweene the Pharisees and the Sadduces : and the multitude was diuided. For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit : but the Pharisees confesse both.

for his Maiesties deliuerance, &c.

And there arose a great cry, and when the Scribes which were of the Pharisees part arose, they stood, saying, We finde no euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not strue against God. And when there arose a great debate, the chiefe captaine fearing lest Paul should haue beene pluckt asunder of them, commanded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle. And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Bee of good cheere, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Hierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome. And when it was day, certaine of the Jewes gathered themselves together, and made a bow, saying that they would neither eate nor drinke till they had killed Paul. And they were more then fourtie men, which had made this conspiracie. And they came to the chiefe Priests & Elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a bow, that wee will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul. Now therefore giue ye knowledge to the chiefe captaine, and to the Councell, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though ye would know something more perfectly of him: and wee, or euer hee come neere, are ready to kil him. And when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying a wait, he went and entred into the castle, and told Paul. And Paul called one of the vnder-captaines vnto him, and said, Bring this young man vnto the high captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him. And hee tooke him, and brought him to the high captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called mee vnto him, and prayed me to bring this young man vnto thee, which hath a certaine matter to shew thee. Then the high captaine tooke him by the hand, and went with him out of the way, and asked him, What is it that thou hast to tell me? And he said, The Jewes are determined to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Councell, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly. But follow not thou their mindes: for there lie in waite for him of them more then forty men, which haue bound themselves with a vow, that they will neither eate nor drinke till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and looke for a promise from thee. The chiefe captaine then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell it out to no man, that thou hast shewed these things to mee. And he called vnto him two vnder-captaines, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers to goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third houre of the night: And deliuer them beaſts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe vnto Felix the high deputie. And he wrote a letter after this manner, Claudius Lysias vnto the most mighty ruler Felix, sendeth greetings. This man was taken of the Jewes, and should haue been killed of them: Then came I with an army, and rescued him, and perceived that hee was a Romane: And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Councell. Whom I perceived to bee accused of questions of their Law, but hauing nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds. And when it was shewed mee how that the Jewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and gaue commandement to his accusers, that the things which they haue against him, they should tell before thee. Farewell. Then the souldiers, as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him nigh to Antipatris. On the morrow, they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle. Which when they came to Celarea, and deliuered the Epistle to the Deputy, presented Paul also before him. And when the Deputy had read the letter, he asked of what prouince he was. And when hee vnderstood that he was of Cilicia. I will heare thee, said hee, when thine accusers are come also. And hee commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

¶ Then reade, or sing.

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel:
for hee hath visited and redeemed
his people.

And hath raised vp a mighty saluation for vs: in the house of his seruant David.

As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets:
which haue beene since the world began.

That wee should be saued from our enemies:
and from the hands of all that hate vs.

To performe the mercy promised to our forefathers: and to remember his holy Couenant.

To performe the oath which hee sware to our forefather Abraham: that he would giue vs.

That we being deliuered out of the hands of our enemies: might serue him without feare.

of Parliament, &c.

Almighty God, who hast in all ages shewed thy power and mercy, in the miraculous and gracious deliuerances of thy Church, and in the protection of righteous and religious kings, and States, professing thy Holy and Eternall trueth, against the wicked conspiracies, and malicious practises of all the enemies thereof: Wee yeeld vnto thee from the very ground of our hearts all possible praise and thanks for the wonderfull, and mighty deliuerance of our late gracious So-ueraigne King IAMES, the Queene, the Prince,
and all the Royall branches, with the Nobility, Clergie, and Commons of this Realme, then assembled together in Parliament, by Popish treachery appointed as sheepe to the slaughter, and that in a most Barbarous and Sauage manner, no age yeelding example of the like cruelty intended towards the Lords Anointed, and his people.
Can this thy goodnesse, O Lord, bee forgotten, worthy to bee written in a pillar of Marble, that wee may euer remember to praise thee for the same, and that all posterity may learne to detest it?
From this vnnaturall Conspiracie, not our me-rite, but thy mercy; not our foresight, but thy providence, deliuered vs; not our loue to thee, but thy loue to thine Anointed seruant, and thy poore present to the end of the world. And therefore not vnto vs, not vnto vs, Lord, but to thy Name bee ascribed all honour, and glory in all Churches of the Saints, throughout all generations: For thou Lord didst discouer the snares of Death,

Thou didst breake them, and wee were deliuered:
Be thou still our mighty Protectour, and scatter
our cruell enemies which delight in blood: infa-tuate their counsell, and root out that Babylonish and Antichristian Sect of them, which say of Jerusalem, Downe with it, downe with it, euen to the ground. And to that end strengthen the hands of our gracious King, the Nobles and Magistrates of the land with iudgement and iustice to cut off these workers of iniquity, who turne Religion into Rebellion, and Faith into Faction, whose practise is murdering of soules and bodies, and to root them out of the confines and limits of this kingdome, that they may neuer preuaile against vs and triumph in the ruine of thy Church, and giue vs grace by true and serious repentance, to auert these and the like iudgements from vs. This, Lord, wee earnestly craue at thy mercifull hands, together with the continuance of thy powerfull protection ouer our dread Soue-

the conuersion, or confusion of all implacable ene-

Almighty God and heauenly Father, which of thy euerslaunting prouidence and tender mercy towards vs, didst preuent the extreame malice, and mischieuous imagination of our enemies, reuealing and confounding their horrible and deuillish enterprise plotted against our late Soueraigne Lord the King, his Royall House, and the whole State of this Realme; for the subuersion thereof, together with the trueth of thy Gospel and pure Religion amongst vs, and for reducing into this Church and Land Popish superstition and tyrannie: Wee most humbly praise and magnifie thy glorious Name, for thine infinite gracious goodness in that our marueilous deliuerance; we confesse it was and is thy mercy, thy mercy alone, (most mercifull Father) that wee were not consumed, that their snare was broken, and our soule escaped. For our sinnes cryed to heauen against vs: and our iniquities iustly called for iudgement vpon vs: but thy great mercy, towards vs exalted it selfe aboue Iudgement, not to deale with vs after our sinnes, nor giue vs ouer (as wee deserved) to bee a prey to our enemies, but taking our correction into thine owne hands, to deliuer vs from their blood-thirstie malice, and preserue from death and destruction, our King and State, with thy holy Gospel and true Religion amongst vs. Good Lord giue vs true repentance, and vnfained conuersion vnto thee, to preuent further iudgement: increase in vs more and more a liuely faith and fruitfull loue in all obedience. that thou mayest continue thy louing fauour with the light infinitely bound vnto thy heauenly Maiesty, for thy many unspeak-placing ouer vs a most gracious King, a faithfull

their thoughts to the inuention of most dreadfull and as on this day principally thou didst most strangely discover an horrible and cruell plot and device, for the massacring, as well of thy deare Seruant our late dread Soueraigne, as of the chiefe States, assembled in thy feare, for the con-Realme. Wee humbly present our selues at thy tion. For rulers are not fearefull to good workes, but to the euill. Wilt thou not feare the power?

Doe well, and thou shalt haue praise of the same.
For he is the minister of God for thy wealth, But if thou doe euill, feare, for he beareth not the sword in vaine: For he is the minister of God, reuenger of wrath on him that doeth euill. Wherefore yee must needs be subiect, not onely for feare of punishment: but also because of conscience. And for this cause pay ye tribute, for they are Gods ministers, seruing for the same purpose. Giue to euery man therefore his duty, tribute to whom tribute is due, custome to whom custome, feare to whom feare,
honour to whom honour belongeth.

The Gospel. Matth. 27.

When the morning was come, all the chiefe Priests and Elders of the people held a counsell against when they had bound him, they led him away, and deliuered him to Pontius Pilate the Deputie.

Then Judas which had betrayed him, when hee saw that he was condemned, repented himselfe, and brought againe the thirty siluer pieces to the chiefe Priests and Elders, saying, I haue sinned, in that I haue betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to vs? see thou to that. And when hee had cast downe the pieces of siluer in the Temple, he departed and went his way, and hanged himselfe. And the chiefe Priests tooke the siluer pieces, and said, It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood. And when they had taken counsell, they bought with them the potters field, to bury strangers in: wherefore that field was called, The field of blood vnto this day. (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Ieremie the Prophet, saying, and they tooke the thirty siluer pieces, the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the children of Israel: and gaue them for the potters field, as the Lord had appointed me.

I Beleeue in one God the Father Almighty, maker of heauen and earth, and of all things visible and inuisible: and in one Lord Iesus Christ, the onely begotten Sonne of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: who for vs men, and for our Saluation, came downe from heauen, and was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgine Mary, and was made man, and was crucified also for vs vnder Ponce Pilate. He suffered, and was buried, and the third day he arose againe according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heauen, and sitteth on the right hand of the Father.

And he shall come againe with glory to iudge both the quicke and the dead: whose Kingdome shall haue none end. And I beleue in the holy Ghost, the Lord and giuer of life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Sonne, who with the Father and the Sonne together is worshipped and glorified, who spake by the Prophets. And I beleue one Catholique and Apostolique Church. I acknowledge one Baptisme for the remission of sinnes. And I looke for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come, Amen.

¶ After the Creed, if there be no Sermon, shall follow one of the Homilies. And particularly, some part of that Homily which is against Rebellion.

V Whatsoeuer yee would that men should doe vnto you, euen so doe vnto them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

¶ Let vs pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

all Christian Kings, Princes, and Governours, and specially thy seruant CHARLES our King, that vnder him wee may be godly and quietly gouerned. And grant vnto his whole Councell, and to all that bee put in authoritie vnder him, that they may truely and indifferently minister iustice, to the punishment of wickednesse and vice, and to the maintenance of Gods true Religion and vertue. Giue grace (O heauenly father) to all Bishops, Pastours and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and liuely word, and rightly and duely administer thy holy Sacraments. And to all thy people giue thy heauenly grace, and especially to this Congregation here present, that with meeke heart and due reuerence, they may heare and receiue thy holy word, truely seruing thee in holinesse and righteousness all the dayes of our life. ASist vs mercifully, O Lord, in these our supplications and prayers, and dispose the way of thy seruants toward the attainment of everlasting saluation, that among all the changes and chances of this mortall life they may bee ever defended by thy most gracious and ready helpe, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Almighty God, which hast promised to heare the petitions of them that aske in thy Sonnes Name, we beseech thee mercifully, to incline thine eares to vs that haue made now our prayers and supplications vnto thee, and grant that those things which we haue faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the reliefe of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Iesus Christ our Lord.
